MOUNT TOWER

MOUNT SAINT JOSEPH HIGH SCHOOL

BALTIMORE 29, MARYLAND

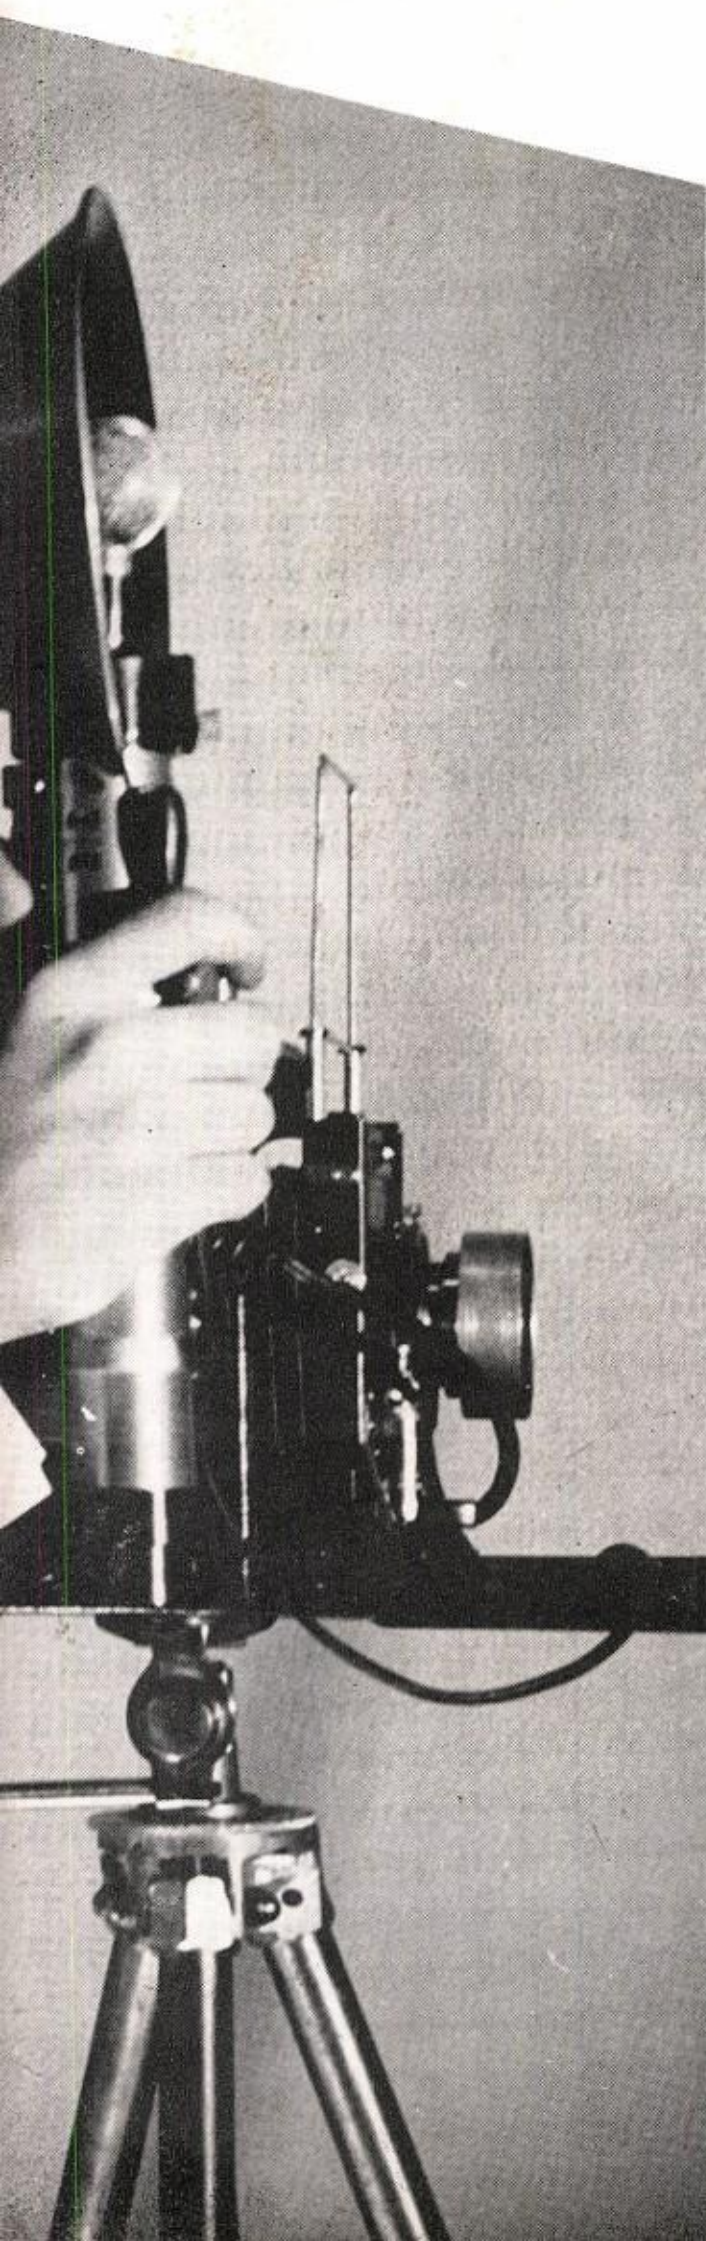

REPORTER DICK FEHER

FORMALS — Senior-Prom night climaxing the social activities is recalled for Joe Vicini and his date in this favor presentation.

STUDENTS — Lou Winkelman and Wayne Morrison typify the scientific interest of today's wide-awake youth.

ASSEMBLY LEADER—Joe Simmons, senior prexy, smoothly emcees a spirited pre-game student rally.

ADDED ATTRACTION—A fall of snow brings out the rich setting of the Mount, as both hills and buildings sparkle with the silver-white coloring of winter . . .

THIS IS THE MOUNT . . . BIG

FOR MORE THAN 75 YEARS, Mt. St. Joseph has been the "Alma Mater" to boys from all parts of Baltimore, from the states of Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia, and from the countries of Venezuela, New Mexico, and Porto Rico. Through the years, the school has grown with the community needs, until today when its student enrollment is over a thousand, its faculty of Xaverian Brothers and laymen over forty-five members, and its program sufficiently diverse to meet all religious, scholastic and educational requirements. The faculty, the students, and the alumni are justly proud of the outstanding record of Mt. St. Joseph in the field of Catholic Education.

SCHOOL PATRON—The statue of Saint Joseph, school patron, erected at the Mount's founding still stands an inspiration to untiring Mountmen.

EUROPEAN VISITORS—Brother Placidus, headmaster of Mount St. Joseph's pauses in the shadow of the Tower, emblematic of the Mount, to explain to visiting European Provincials, Brother Julien of Belgium and Brother Pius of England the extensive campus and facilities of Mt. St. Joseph's.

MONASTERY BOUND — At the beginning of each year, the entire school attends the Mass at the Monastery for the intention of blessing the school year.

ASSUMING THE tremendous task of guiding, directing, and instructing the Mountmen are the Xaverian Brothers. Upon this religious community rests the responsibility of molding the Catholic Americans of the future. Earnestly endeavoring to accomplish this objective, the thirty-eight teaching Brothers at Mt. St. Joseph offer their knowledge and experience as teachers in the classroom, as coaches on the athletic field, and as counselors for personal and vocational problems.

IN ADDITION to more than 40 Brothers who compose the school's faculty, there are 3 laymen, 2 secretaries, and 6 Sisters of the Order of the Most Holy Redeemer. The laymen are particularly active as coaches for the major sports when not occupied with regular classes. The secretaries are attached to the treasurer's office and the Prefect of Studies office where their duties give them a clear appreciation of the many details of operation of a big boarding and day school. The Sisters are in complete charge of the infirmary, the kitchen, and the chapel. In these departments the Sisters' efforts are continuous and outstanding. Thanks to their splendid devotion, and the fine understanding cooperation of laymen and office staff, the Mount operates each year smoothly and efficiently as an outstanding Catholic High School.

SCHOLASTICS

A SCHOLAR'S LIFE

OPTIMISTIC YOUNG MEN, striving for ambitious goals, constitute the students of the Mount. Each man, trained as an individual, develops thoroughly individualistic tendencies. The ideals of free expression are borne out in the opportunities open to all Mountmen, whether in the debating club, or on the football field, or in the newspaper office. All the students of the Mount—ordinary teenagers—battle the period tests and exams. They all feel the kick of a spirited fall pep rally or the thrill of an exciting challenge on the basketball court.

Sure, everybody agrees, including the Brothers, that the sound of the 2:40 bell is mighty pleasant. But even more than the signal of the end of a long day of study, it is the assurance of a job well done—for Brothers and students alike.

THE QUEST

BIOLOGISTS—Examining an old bone structure or breeding minute organisms is the work of these diligent lab men, under the tutelage of Brother DeSales, the students learn the wonders of Mother Nature, while observing these facts in motion under the microscope.

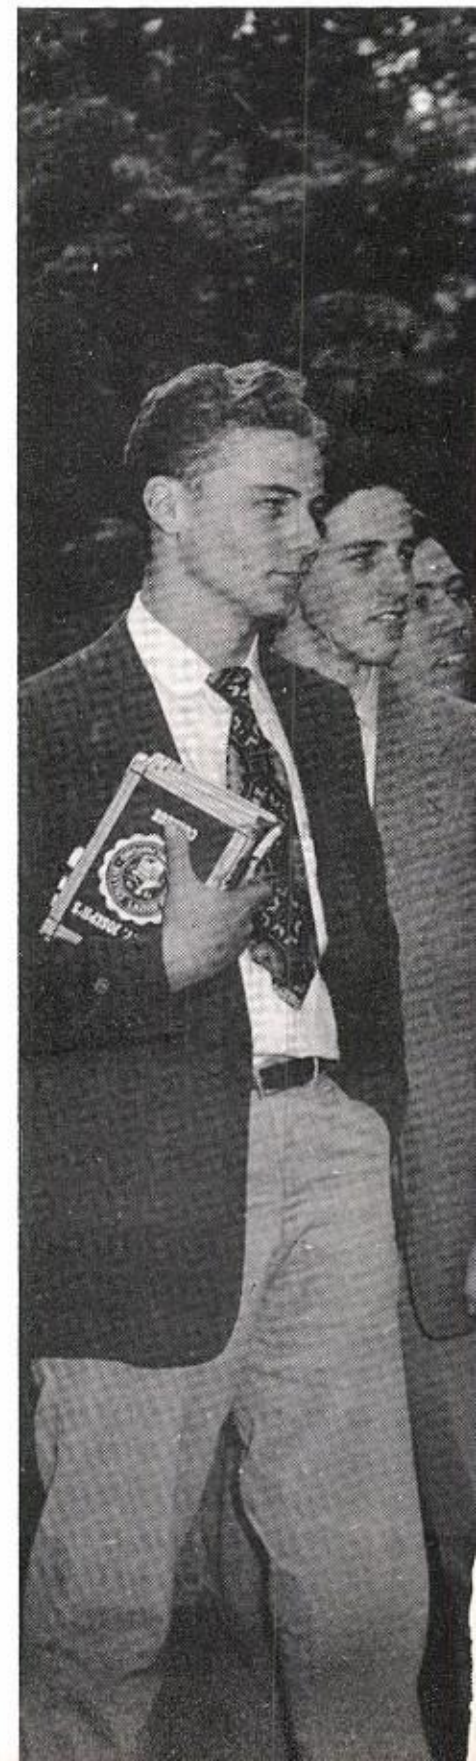

HAMS—Each year the Mount Radio Class visits a radio station to observe how practical radio theory is put to use in a commercial station. Here, in one of the main studios of WFBR, can be seen a complex array of meters and knobs used in the process of putting speech on the air.

PRACTICE RUN—Brother Romuald has his star gazers try a daylight run before hunting night skies.

FOR KNOWLEDGE IS ENDLESS

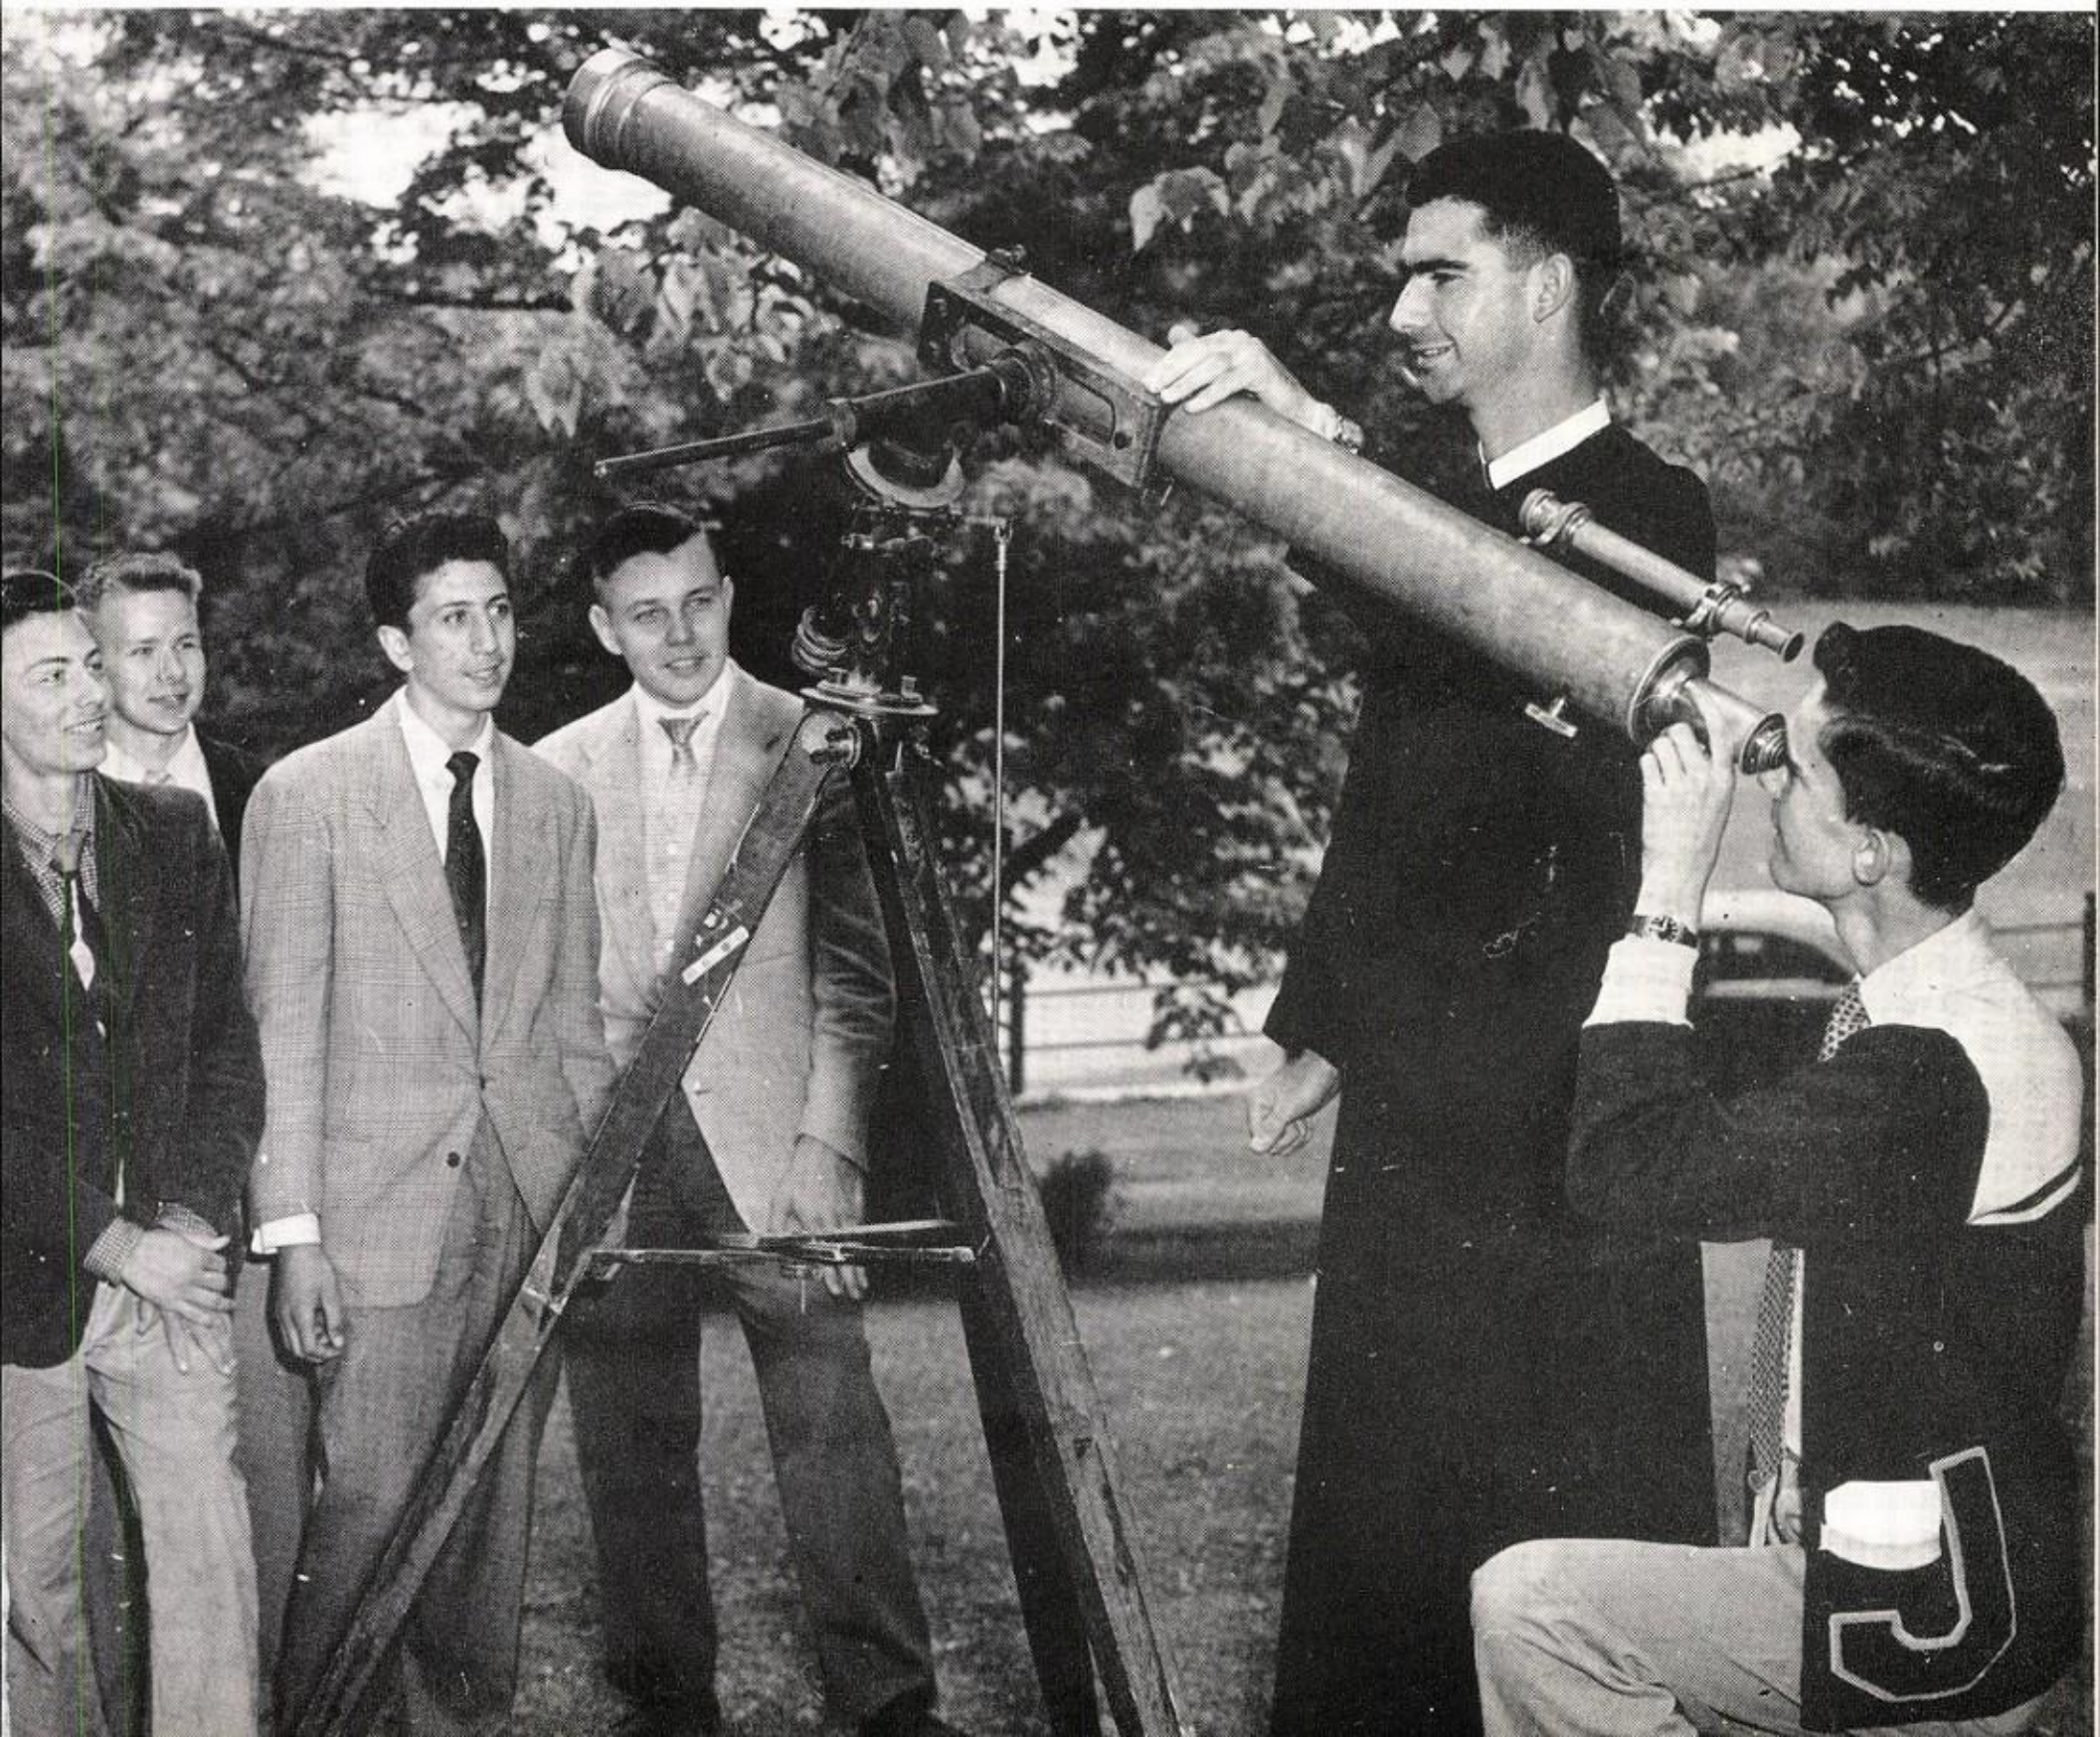

DURING THE YEAR, Mount chemists, some eager, some doubtful, hunched over their lab tables amidst the penetrating fumes of ammonia, chlorine, and hydrogen sulfide. Field trips under Brother Marcellus, besides providing the science-plodders with entertainment, exposed to chemical neophytes the functioning of various processes, while open house exhibited to interested onlookers the practical side of modern chemistry.

Various films and the resounding voice of the noted physics instructor enlightened aspiring physicists of M105, while prisms, gears, and falling bodies comprised obstacles to deter industrious junior scientists. The big shock of the year came when Mount skeptics joined hands around the room thus completing the circuit of Brother Romuald's static generator.

A glance into the neatly arranged biology lab gives not a hint of the operations practiced therein. Mount bug chasers under Brother De Sales inspect insects, dissect frogs and snakes, delve into the secrets of the amoeba and protozoa, and wonder at the amazing efficiency of arboreal pollinization.

Beeps, squeaks, dots, and dashes are heard in the early afternoon as Mount radiomen under Brother Marcellus struggle with transmitting keys and Herzian waves. Eager "hams" operated on the two amateur stations here, while adventurers strove for their "technician" and "general" licenses.

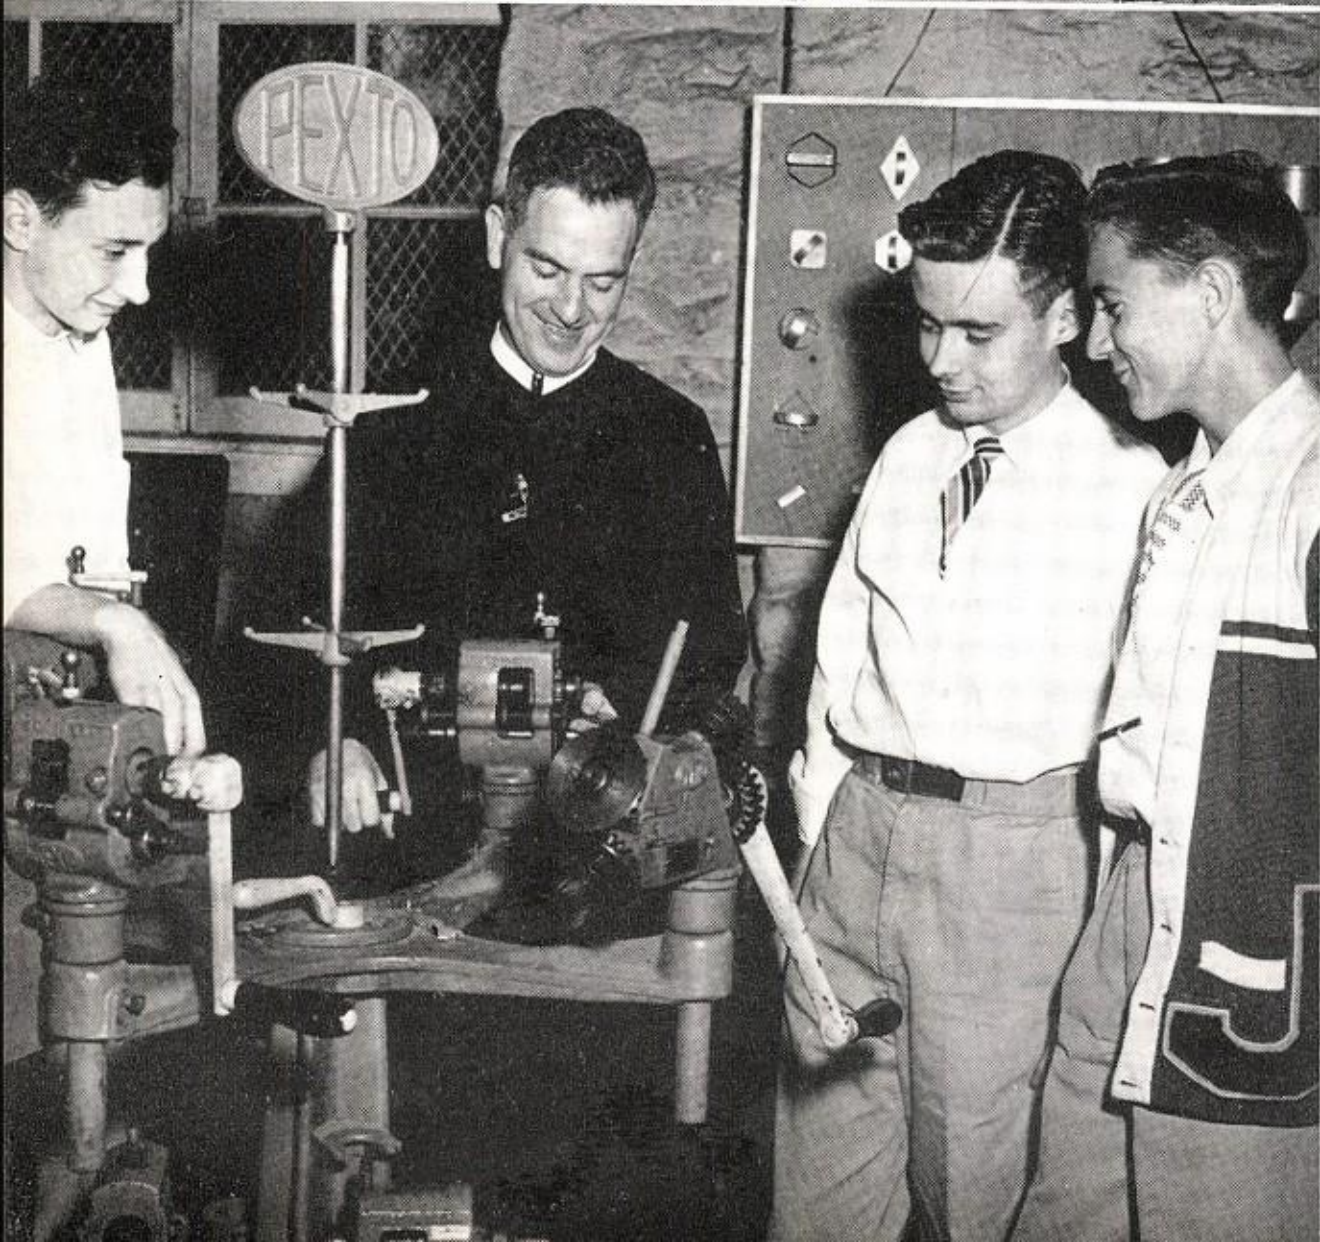

BROTHER CAMILLUS — demonstrates to some members of his General Science class, how the electric motor works.

SCIENCE CLUB—The science club of Mt. St. Joseph, affiliated with the National Science Clubs was formed for the first time at the Mount this year. Here, in the physics lab, where the meetings were held monthly, some of its members demonstrate their interesting projects. Brother Marcellus, club moderator, planned many interesting trips and demonstrations, while Ben Popera, the president of the club, presided over the meetings.

GETTING THE FACTS—As we travel through the school we soon come to the Metal Shop where Brother Cornelius is explaining, to Bob Mayr, Frank Sullivan, and Bob Regula, the complicated procedure in the development of the machinery in the Metal Shop. At the Mount there is an opportunity for those who are planning a future as an engineer to secure the necessary background for this work.

THE PHILOSOPHY of the Mount's educational system can be found in the English department's four year tour of Literature, and among the many approved volumes that wait, shelved in the Library cabinets, to be explored.

The great thoughts of great men of years past, set forth with unmistakable solidity in their writings, are a sure path to learning. Along with our English-teaching Xaverians, we explored the works and lives of Literature's greatest. We traveled from Beowulf to Macbeth—from Pope to Eliot—from A to Z in the world of letters—and, no doubt, came out the better for it. Despite senior term papers and exams and all; the lucky ones who passed show that the course is not altogether unconquerable, only more or less impossible.

GREAT MEN AND GREAT BOOKS

LIBRARIAN—Brother DePaul here interviews with his capable assistant the system best suited to expedite the flow of books to meet the constant student needs. The library has been completely renovated and improved as a result of Brother DePaul's tremendous interest and enthusiasm.

OUR DEVOTION IS DAILY

UNDER THE ABLE leadership of moderator Brother Urban Francis and prexy Jack Spence, the Mount's C.S.M.C. rounded out one of the most successful years of its history with a city-wide rally at the Cathedral on Palm Sunday at which four Mountmen received awards for their outstanding mission work. The Mount unit was equally well-represented.

At a meeting on March 17, popular juniors Joe Schmitt and Joe D'Onofrio were elected prexy and vice-prexy to succeed Jack Spence and Dick Braungart.

The success of the C.S.M.C. in the Bishop's Fund further accentuated its determination to put across everything that it endeavored. Its ability to hold dances with favorable success despite many distracting activities also proved that this year's C.S.M.C. was one of the best organized in recent years. Mountmen made the daily climb of 54 steps to make the Morning Rosary the biggest single event of the year with 35,000 decades offered up for world peace.

COORDINATORS—Vice-prexy, Dick Braungart and prexy Jack Spence develop a new appreciation of the world missions as a result of the Bishop's Relief Drive.

DOOR PRIZE—Don Lucassen ignores the candle fire to get a close look at the beautiful wrist rosary won by his pretty date.

DANCERS—The Bunny Hop explains this snake like activity at the first dance held in the basement of the new gym.

ORGANIZERS—New Prexy, Joe Schmitt, suggests a new motto for this corps of real mission boosters: Joe D'Onofrio, P. Synan, C. Allen, J. Erdman, J. Skudena, J. Gary, M. Dietz, and L. Kossa.

CSMC

REGARDLESS OF THE TIME or place, the melodius tunes of the Mount's fifty-two piece band are a prime source of stimulating the spirit of the student body. Each and every school day, this group of aspiring Sousas starts its noble endeavors under the capable guidance of Brothers Simon and Aquin in the band room. Throughout the year this work continues until a group of perfected musicians is molded. The band's practice, though at times regarded as difficult and irksome, is well rewarded as its exhibition on the gridiron, at pep rallies, and in concerts portrays.

STRIKE UP THE BAND!

BAND MEMBERS—(left to right) First Row: J. Philibert, L. Sniadach, L. Harding, G. Jacobs, Br. Simon, Br. Aquin, J. Strigle, J. Winkler, J. Frazier, J. D'Onofrio. Second Row: R. Richwalski, V. LITERARY LIONS

MAINSTAY—Joe Lucas, top yearbook salesman, refused to enjoy the summer until he had hammered pages of type and captions to insure a topnotch '54 yearbook edition.

FILLING THE JOB of "keeping the students up with the news" are the school publications, The Quill and The Mount Tower.

The Quill, the school newspaper, is published seven times annually by a staff composed of an editor-in-chief, associate editor, managing editor, sports editor, feature editor, business manager, ten reporters, two staff artists, and three photographers. It is through The Quill that Mountmen learn of the exploits and accomplishments of their classmates, as reviewed in the news articles, sports stories and features.

The Mount Tower, published and produced by the Business staff, written by the newspaper staff, and brought to life by the darkroom staff, summarizes the activities of the year. The unique mode of presentation of the yearbook has garnered, for its staff members, the Maryland Scholastic Press Association Championship three of the last four years.

It is through the combined efforts of The Quill and The Mount Tower that students, faculty, alumni, and friends are kept abreast of the activities at Mount Saint Joseph.

DEBATER GEORGE NELLIES—Treasurer of the Catholic Debating League, makes financial reports at the city-wide League Meeting in May. The League met four times during the year to discuss bettering the seasonal debates and keeping the intricate schedules straight.

DEBATERS—The Mountmen who helped win that beautiful League Trophy are (standing): Bernie Pietruski, Wayne Ray, Joe Philibert, George Nellies, Warren Donohue, Al Slomba, and Pat Cullen, (and seated): Joe Crosby and Jim Dougherty.

AFTER-DEBATE DOINGS—In the Mount auditorium bring-together Pat Cullen and Joe Crosby of the Mount and Bernie Lardner, Mary Frances Ireton, and Ann Allulis of I.N.D. to discuss the arguments just presented in the discussion of Direct Vote.

THE LONG-AWAITED MOMENT—Baltimore Debating League Prexy, Joe Philibert, presents to Brother Champion the trophy he helped earn for the Mount. This was a championship year both for the team and for Joe Philibert who garnered the League Best Speaker Award.

..... DEBATING CHAMPIONS

THEY AIM FOR SENIORITY

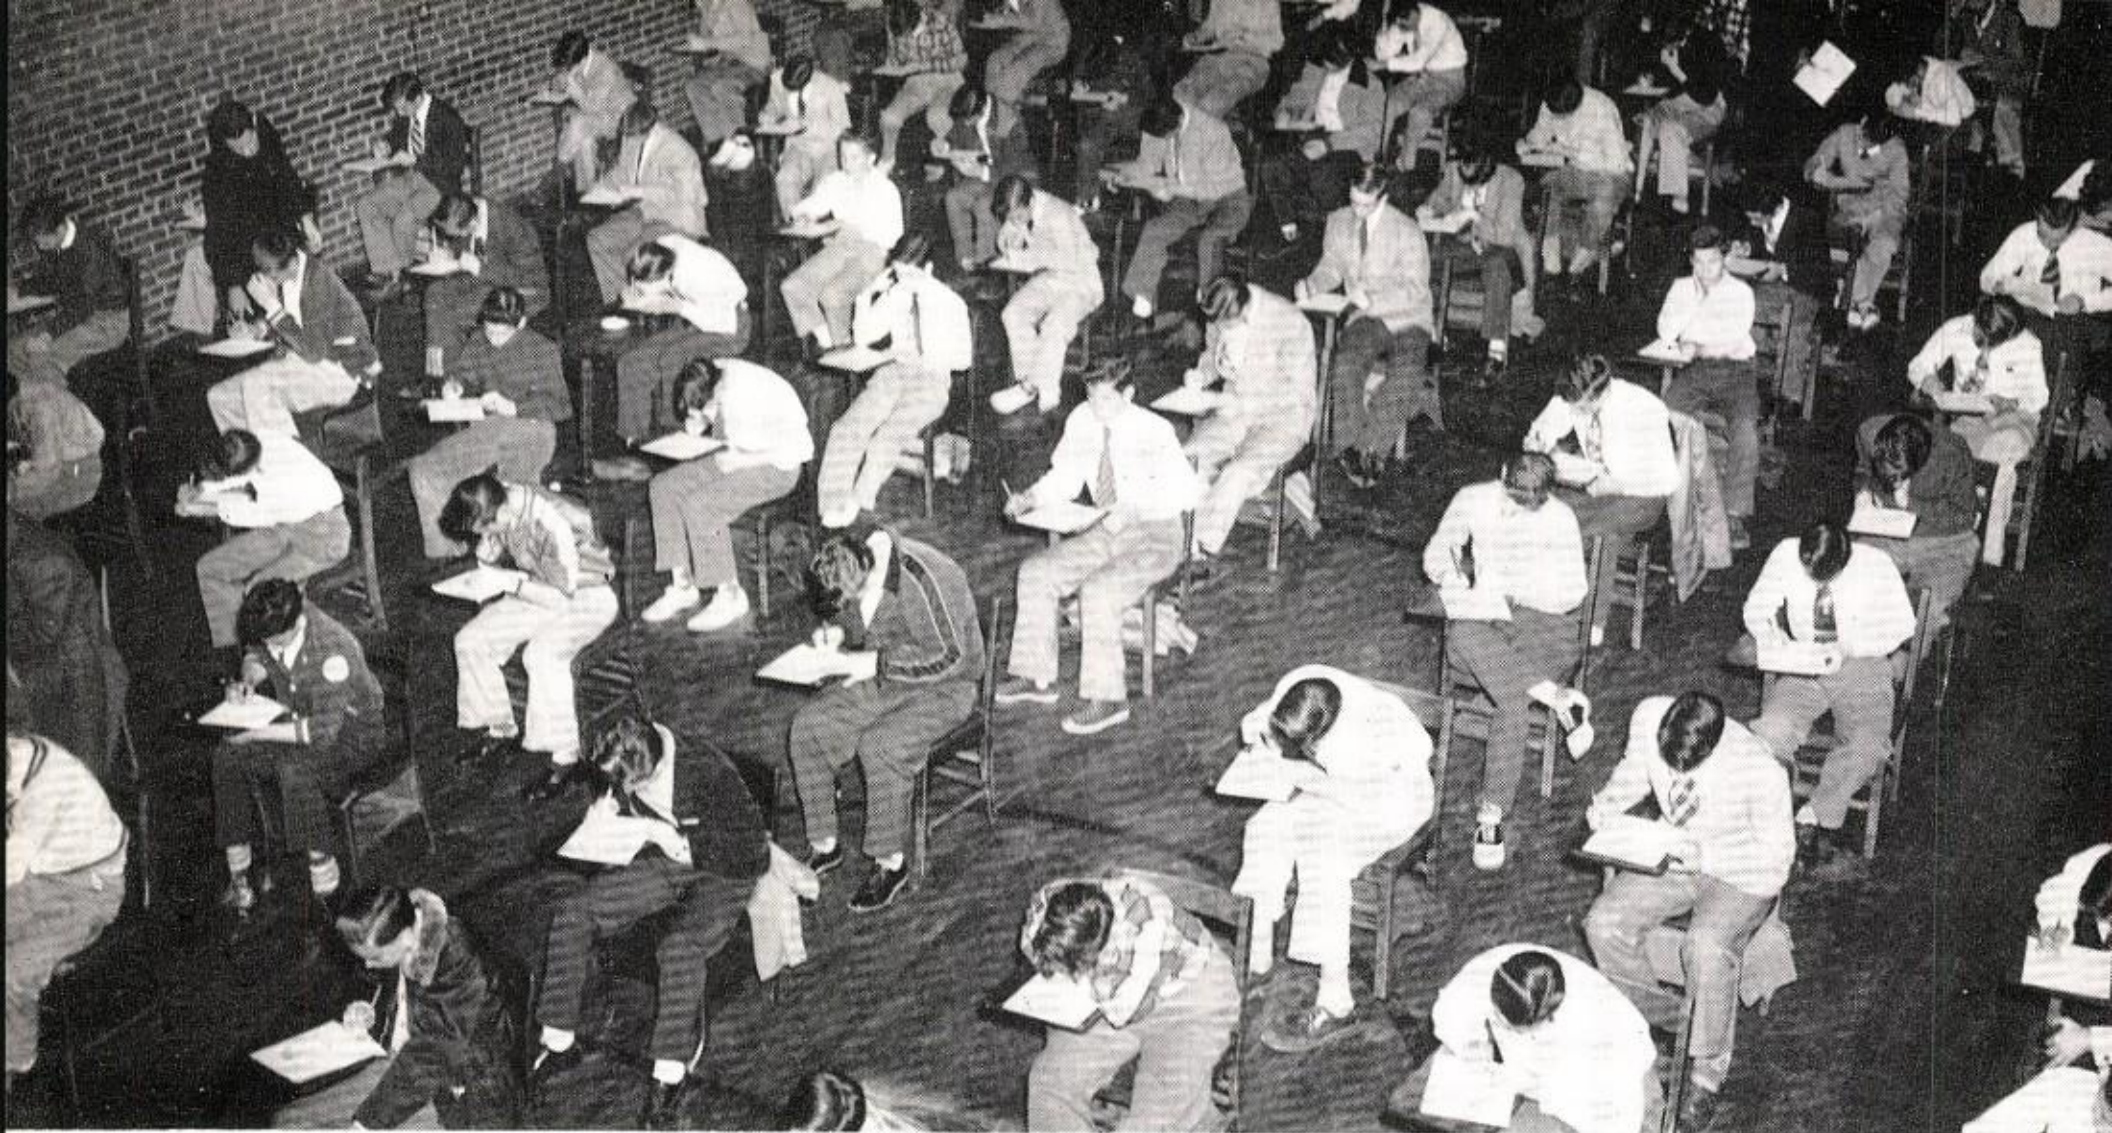

FRESHMEN, eager and active, scamper through the first year, aiming blindly for better things.

Apparently self-sufficient Sophomores, impressed with their new nobility, casually work for third year status.

Attracted by the nearness of their goal of seniority, revitalized Juniors bustle through a year of new interests and new discoveries. All a part of the development of a four year program, these Mountmen will eventually step forth as seasoned Seniors, molded by three previous periods of trial and training.

SPORTS

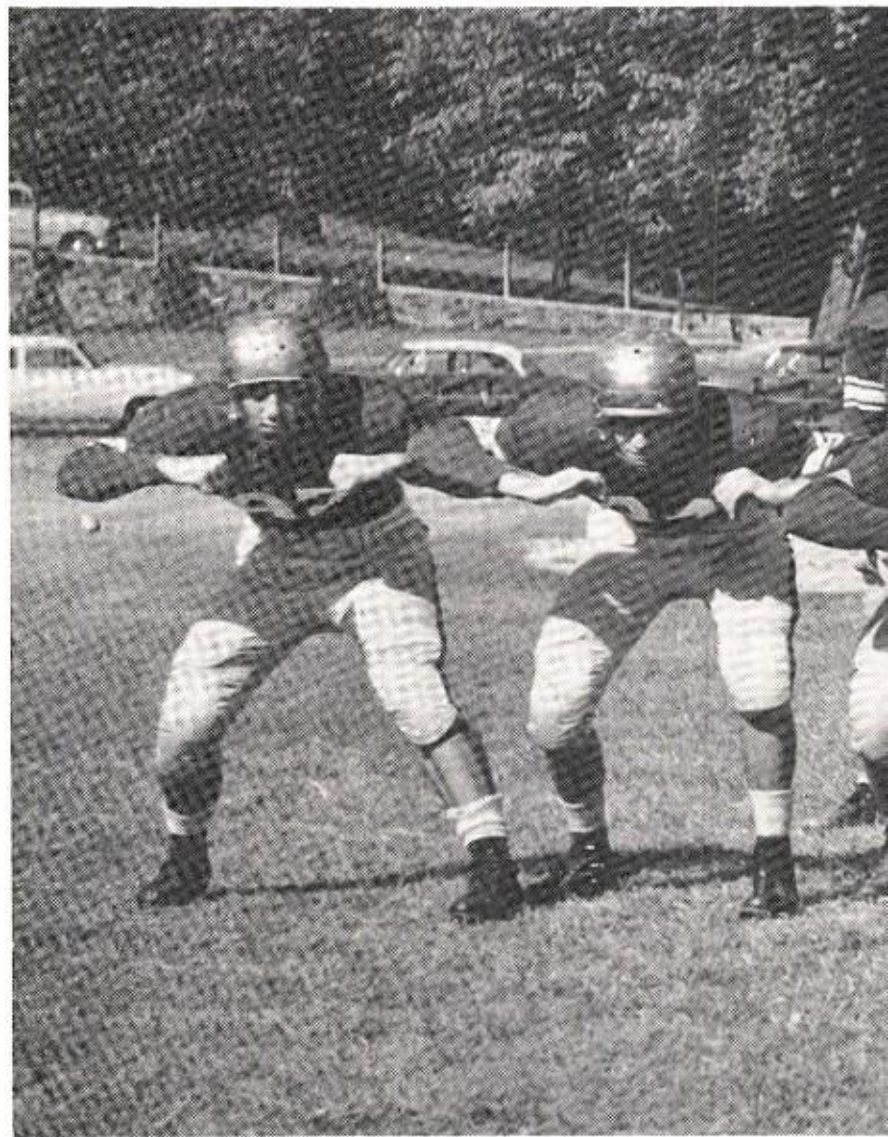

SPIRIT PLAYS A BIG PART

DURING THE OPENING WEEKS of school, the marching music of the band echoes across the lower field awakening feelings of anticipation in the boys as they anxiously await the coming football season. As the pep rallies arrive, the voices of all loyal Mountmen can be heard resounding the "Four Letters" and "We're from the Mount; we couldn't be prouder!" This one phrase reveals the true spirit significant of Mount Saint Joseph's loyal vitality. The frenzy of these pre-game pep rallies moves to the excitement of the game, where the cheering crowd backs the Gaels to the final whistle. A loud and slightly off key "Purple and the Cream" climaxes the game. It is easy to see why we are noted for "The Spirit of the Mount."

SUBSTITUTION—Line coach, Stan Zaleski, states the case plain and simple as he readies Frank Batz, Fred Maisel, and Frank Novak for the Poly clash.

- - - PLUS 'KNOW HOW' DOES IT

TARGET AHEAD—Big Gene Nieberlein eludes the frantic Patterson defenders to cradle the spiraling pigskin safety in the end zone. Final score 25-0.

BREAK THROUGH—Jolting Jim Miller brushes aside feeble opponent objections as he crashes into the end zone to score.

MOUNT FOOTBALL power again displayed itself in the '53 season. In compiling a 5-2-1 log, the Gaels took the Catholic Crown and third place in the M.S.A. standings.

Opening the season, the Purple and Cream stopped Gonzaga, 9-6, before a capacity crowd at Gibbons Field. Carter Glass of Virginia and Valley Forge Military Academy were then responsible for the only Gael setbacks.

Poly spoiled Gael title hopes by holding the gridders to a scoreless deadlock.

City, Patterson Park, Calvert Hall, and Loyola fell prey to the high scoring Gael machine as the Mount line, led by All-American high school guard Tom Hisky, held M.S.A. opponents to six points, lowest in the conference.

Named to All-Star squads of the local papers were Tom Hisky, John Bridges, Frank Kozel, Ed Brent, and Bob Roberts.

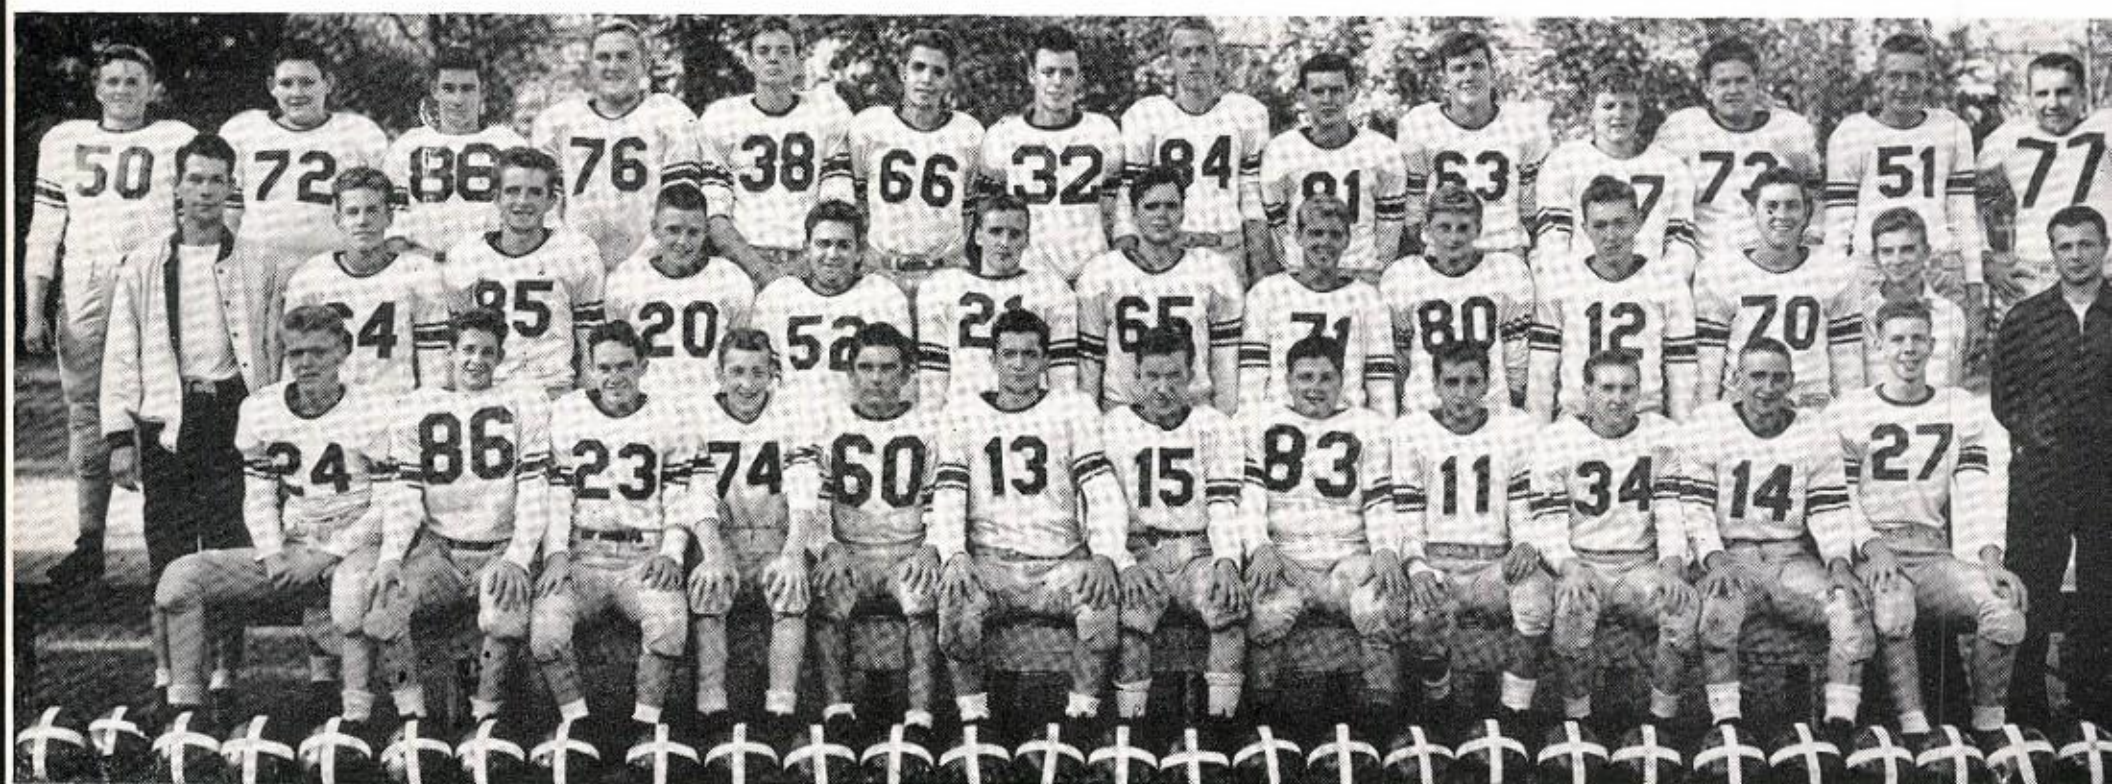

Scoring highlight of the season was Bob Roberts' 100 yard return of the opening kickoff against Loyola. Dick Sneeringer scored on the longest pass play which covered 51 yards against the same Loyola team.

Leading scorers for the season were Bob Roberts and John Corcoran with 24 points each and Mike Duffy with 18 points.

UNATTACHED—"It's mine, fellas, all mine," seems to be the sentiment of Pat Riley as he shoos away opposition.

DREAMERS—have their night of nights in the future but right now they are content on having fun at the Sports Dance which was held in the old gym.

BATTLERS

ALTHOUGH Mr. John Plevyak's booters broke precedent and failed for the first time in three years to capture the M.S.A. title, they nevertheless came up with another of their patented winning seasons. To the few die hard, seasoned fans who sat or stood through these encounters on the outer proximity of the Mount Campus, the season again was a success. These soccer men ended the season entrenched firmly in second place behind co-champions Poly and Patterson Park. A loss to Calvert Hall in the final game of the season prevented the Mount booters from tying Poly and Patterson for the Crown. Led by Goalie Leroy Beck, Halfs Joe Simmons, Herb Salas, Mario Muyale, Elias Muyale, Ed Dabrowski, Rudy Oduber, Gary Azzaro and Ralph Gonzales, the Purple booters compiled a record of 3 wins and 2 losses. Although Patterson Park again proved to be the old nemesis as they handed St. Joe their first defeat in M.S.A. competition in two years, the men again proved that they were the "team to beat."

SOUTH AMERICAN STEP—Mario Muyale executes an intricate evasive feint as his brother, Elias, readies to receive the pass.

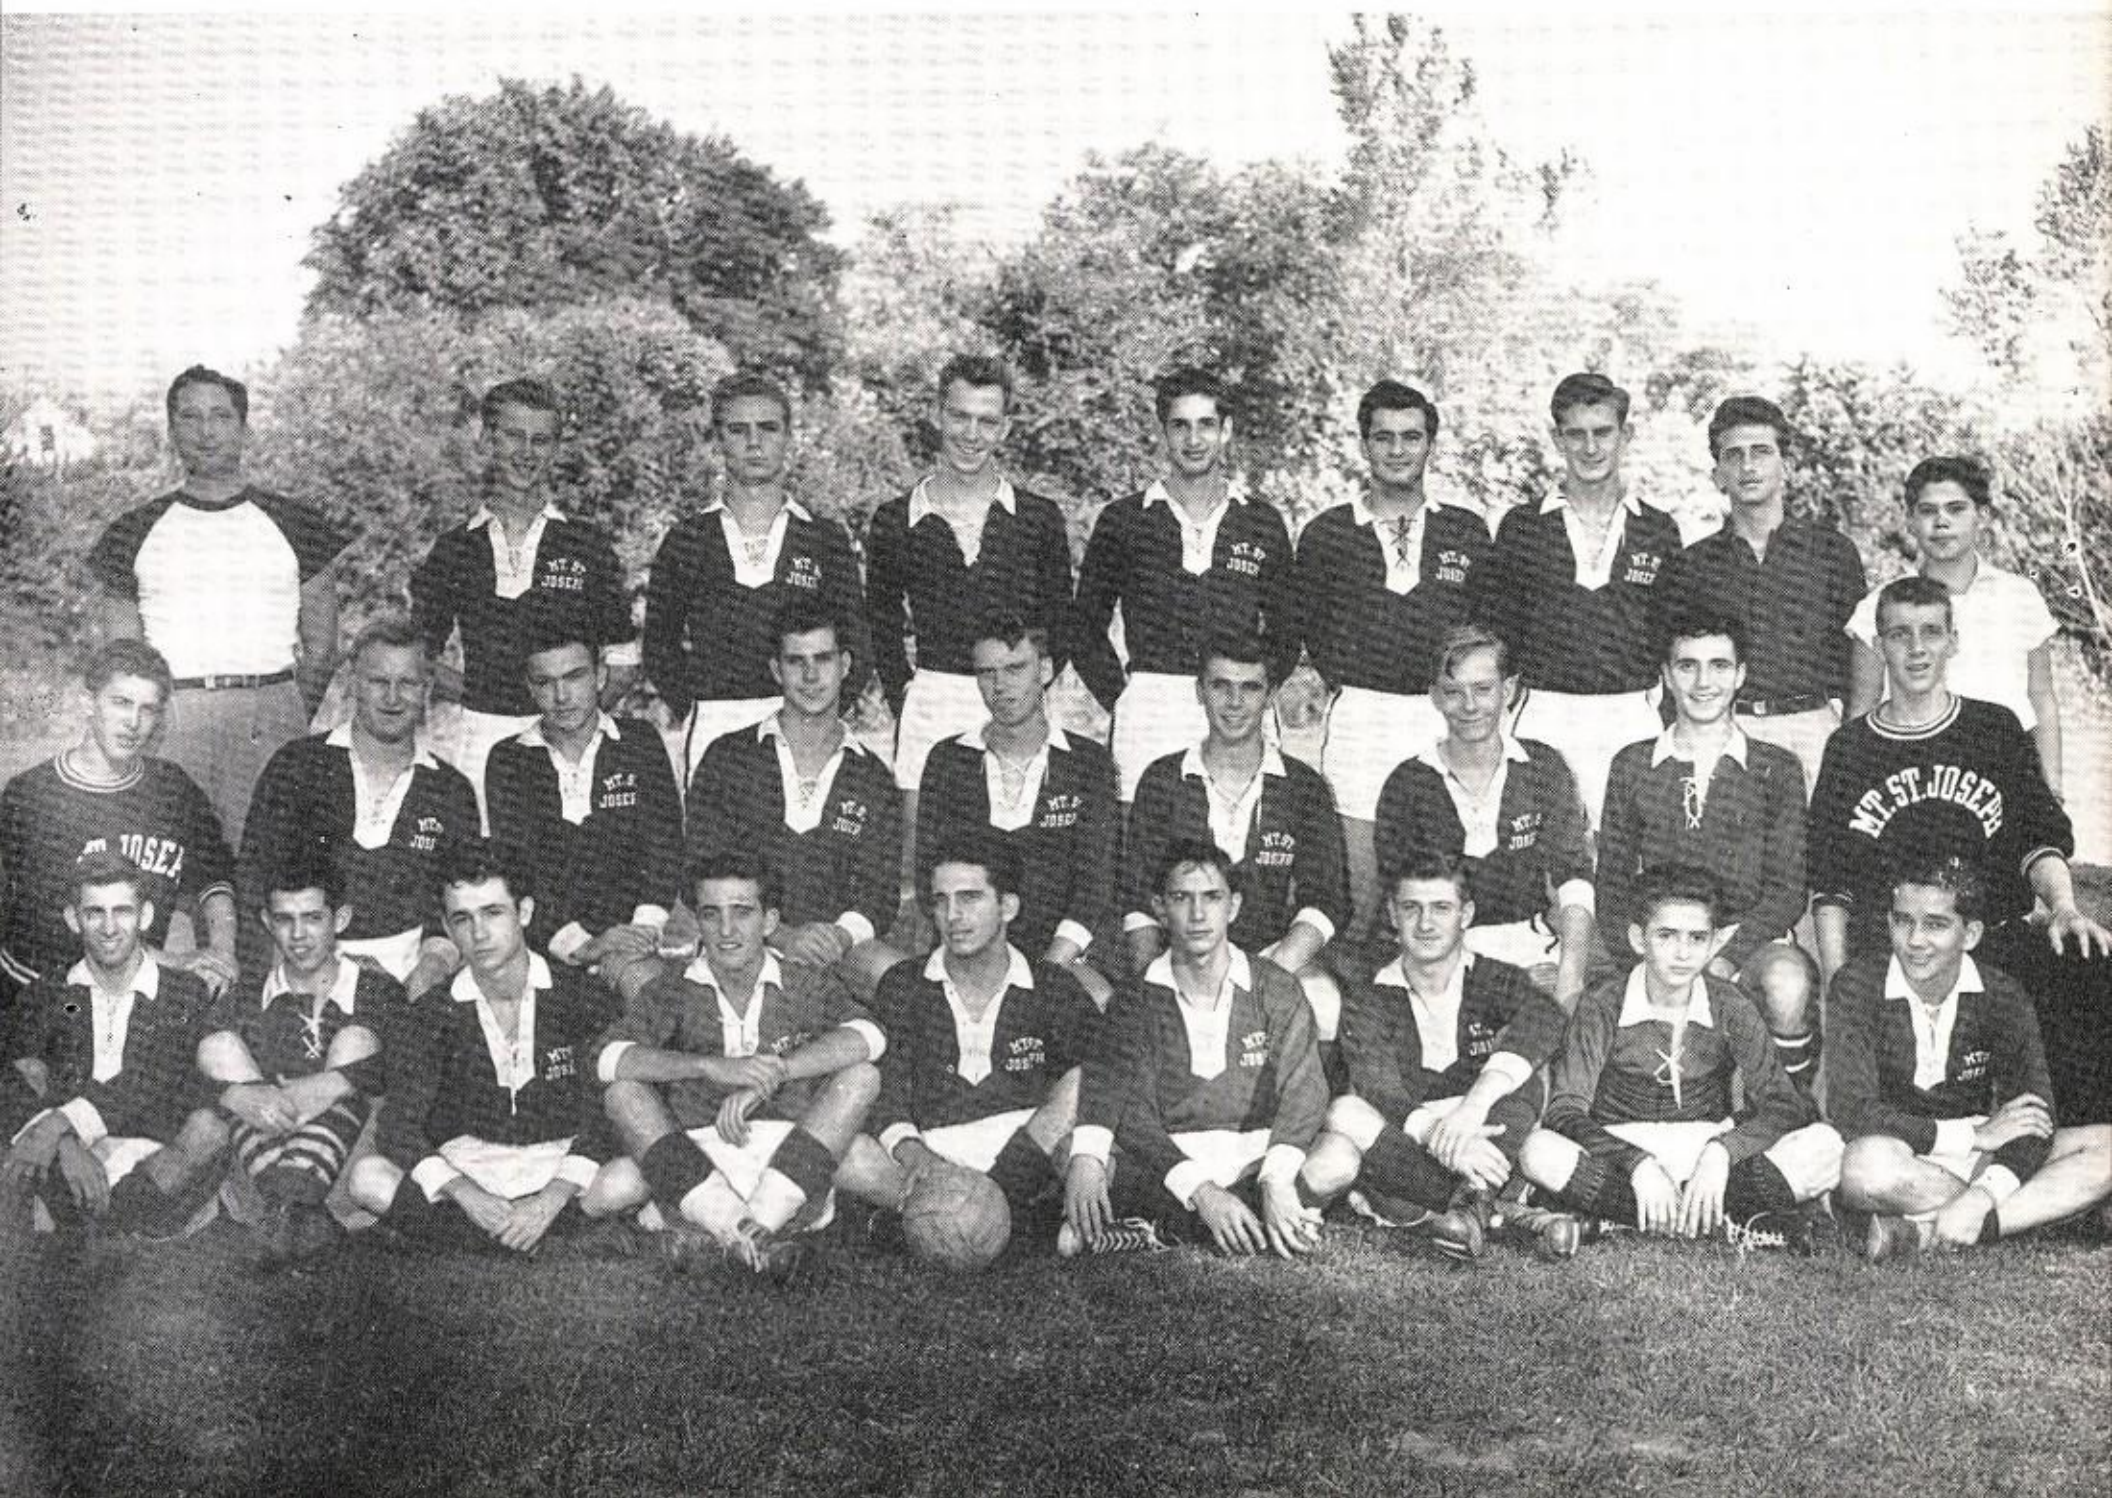

BIG "SAVE"—Goalie, Leroy Beck goes high in the air to stop a goalbound drive as a Milford man throws a partial block.

FROM TOE TO TOE

WHOSE TURN? — Simon Oduber edges close to a loose ball as a Milford opponent comes across to intercept.

TO THE RESCUE—Eli Muyale and Rudy Oduber rush in to break up a goal shot as Leroy Beck, goalie, gives it his personal attention.

SOCCER SUCCESS DEPENDS upon hard work. The search for talent goes on continuously on the white-striped goal-bound field above Frederick Ave. where strong Polish spirit mingles smoothly with excited South American technique to provide the nuceleous for winning soccer clubs. Coach John Plevyak quietly trains the youthful underclassmen whom football and its followers seem to have forgotten. With courageous determination unassisted by the natural inspiration of spectators, Mr. Plevyak works steadily with his squad. The group dwindles, spirit asserts itself, and soon field technique begins to develop as new soccer stalwarts prove themselves able to carry on the championship tradition that Coach Plevyak has helped to establish at the Mount. In his years as top MSA soccer coach, he has won more than eight MSA titles, dominating the soccer scene so decisively that opponents with title aspirations have "pointed for" the St. Joe fray, as the season game to win. We hope that tradition will be maintained.

STAR MAKER—Veteran producer of seven soccer championships, Coach John Plevyak checks the record with thrice-All-Maryland Star, Heriberto Salas.

CHORUS LINE — Charles Darby, Leroy Beck, and Bernie Tribull ignore the ball to check their footwork in this shadow dance.

A PUCKISH SPIRIT IS

MUCH PRAISE and credit was owed the hard fighting 53-54 edition of the St. Joe skaters, working under difficult circumstances and with very little student support. As the season wore on, the pucksters proved their fighting spirit and will to win. This is best exemplified by their stunning victory over Calvert Hall, who up until then had emerged victorious in a long string of 15 encounters. Highlighting this victory was the excellent skating of Eddie Roehre and the net protection of Paul Plant. Closing the season with a record of 3 wins and 5 defeats the skaters entered the Harvard Cup play-offs against Calvert but were eliminated by the league champions.

During the season, outstanding play was turned in by Paul Plant, Eddie Roehre, Kenny Lee, Ed Ball, Frank Wasiuk, Jack Larkin, and Joe Miller.

PROHIBITED AREA—Puck-scarred Paul Plant deflects another flying puck to safer sectors as Charlie Horner and Ed Roehre volunteer for the "hot" missile return flight.

DISPLAYED

STOP THIEF—Seems to be the anguished cry of Frank Wasiuk and Frank Amoss as a Calvert flash steals the puck and heads for home.

IT'S HARD TO KEEP A HOLD ON

REPRESENTING THE MOUNT on the mat during the 1954 wrestling season was a high-spirited but inexperienced team. Due to last year's graduation key men were lost and Coach John Geppi was forced to inaugurate a rebuilding campaign. While the grapplers as a team were unable to register a single victory, stellar performances were turned in throughout the season by Ray Haney, Bill Givens, and John Ziers. These three veteran grunt-and-groan men carried the full load of the team on their shoulders with Ray Haney dropping only one match throughout the season. Under the excellent guidance of Coach John Geppi, many of the new members on the team received much needed pointers and Coach Geppi looks for greater things from them next season. Going into the M.S.A. championship Ziers and Givens were eliminated in the semi-finals while Haney captured the 127 pound class M.S.A. championship.

BASHFUL FOE — Dick Haney skips preliminaries and applies pin pressure to force timid opponent out of hiding.

THESE SLIPPERY FELLOWS

THE MOUNT SAINT JOSEPH swimming team provided the greatest display of individual championships in M.S.A. swimming history since 1945. Jerry Williams, a breast-stroking junior, twice defeated in dual meet competition, posted his best time in triumphing over City. Freshman Harry Bloom, a great swimming sensation, is said to be the one who will fill the shoes left vacant by last year's swimming star, Jim Bracken.

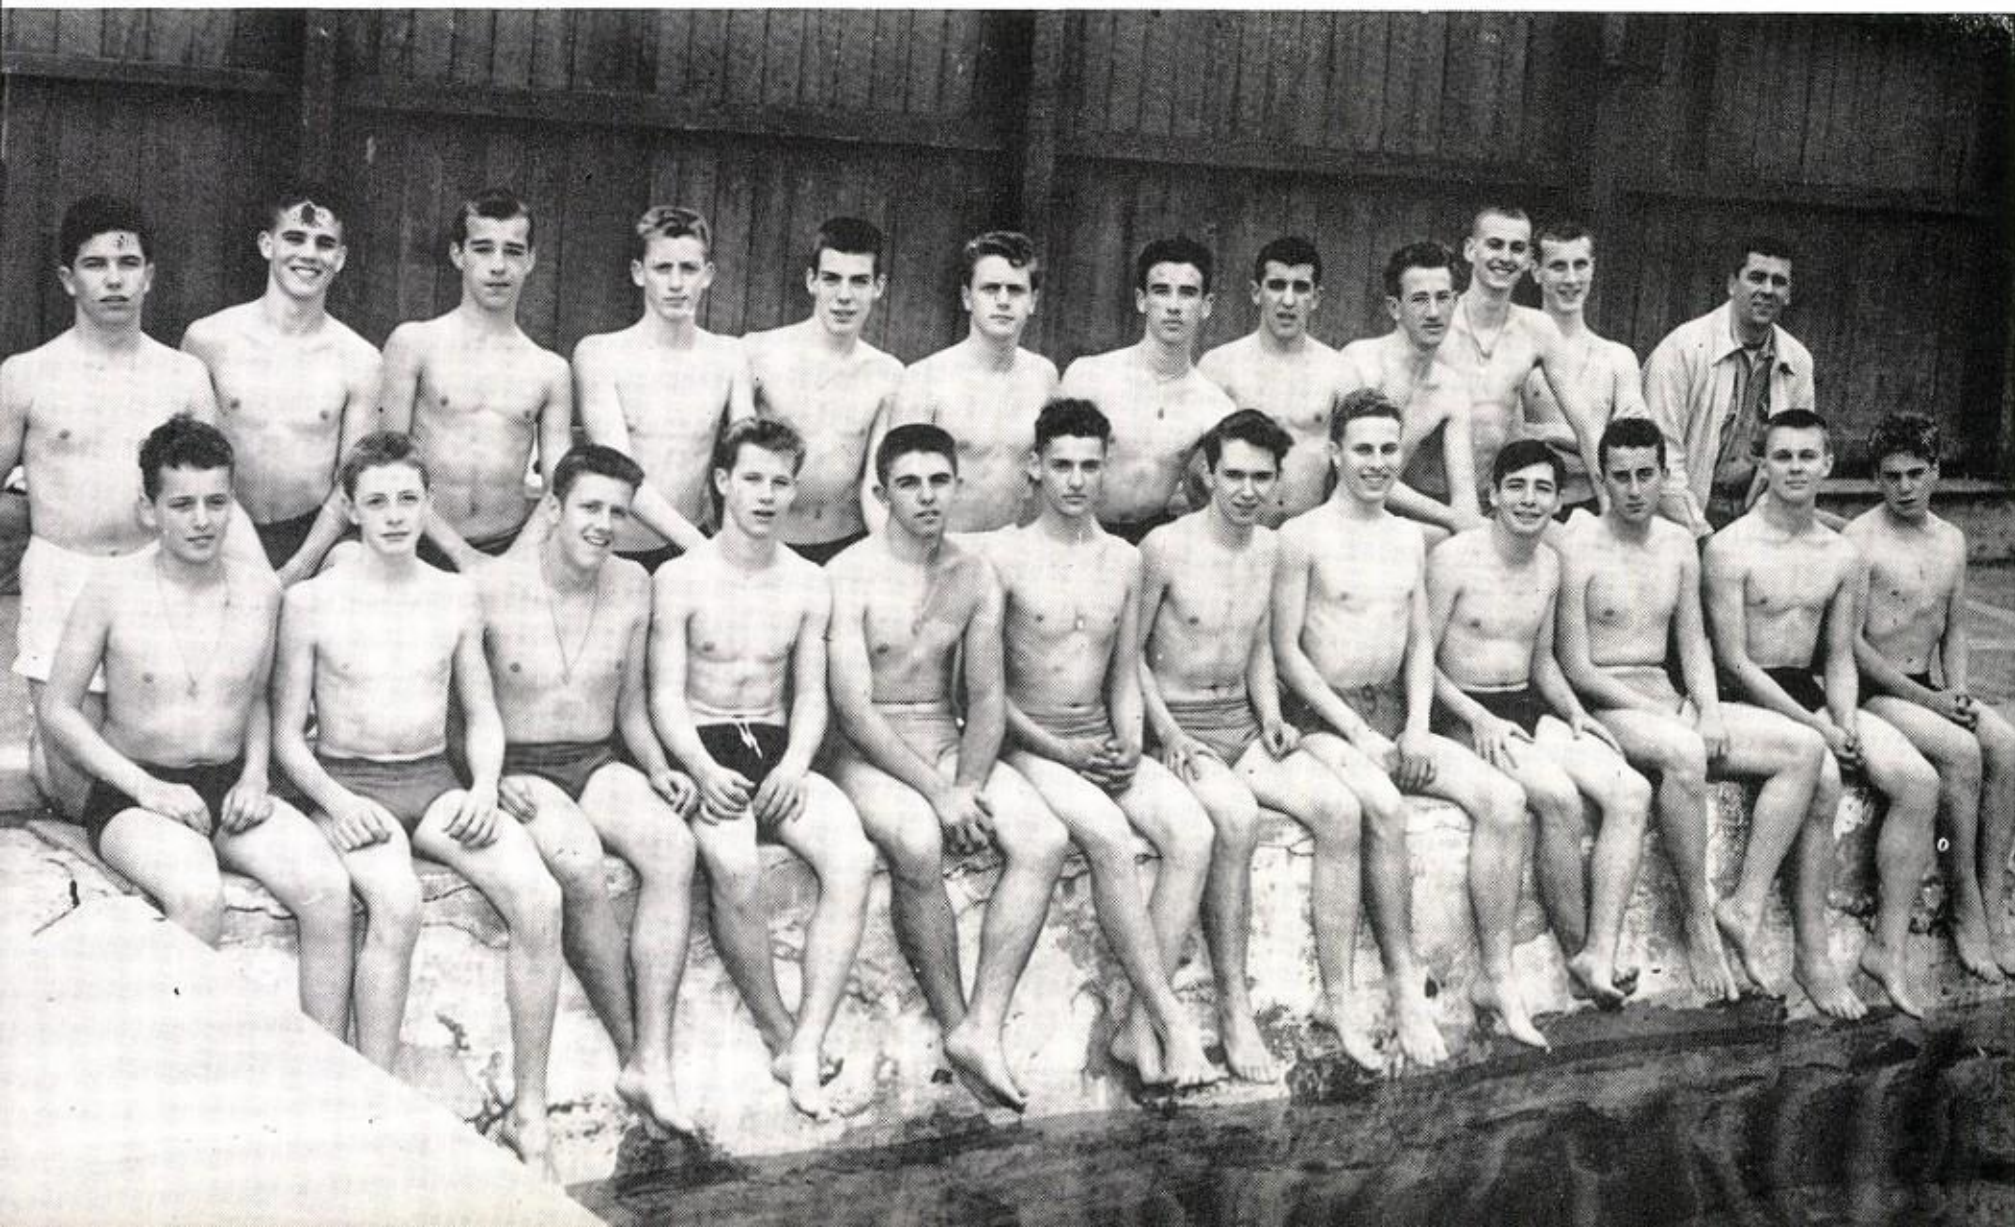

These Gaels, who weekly practiced at the K of C pool, finished second in the M.S.A. dual meet competition. At Villanova University they placed fourth in the National Catholic High School Championships.

A WINNING COURT CASE

FOR THE SECOND straight year, the Purple and Cream quintet of Mount St. Joseph was the champion of the M.S.A.

With Gene Nieberlein, Denny McGuire, and Bill McKenna supplying the height, the Gael speedsters of Pat Riley, Tom Kohlhepp, Frank Novak, and Frank Kozel continually outran their opponents for the crown.

In winning 20 and losing 6 including tournament play, the Gael hoopsters tallied 1523 points to their opponents 1348. Gene Nieberlein and Denny McGuire were named on the loop's All Star squad.

TEAM WRESTLING—Denny McGuire seems a mite disconcerted by the plague of opponents and the missing ball as one player applies a proper arm lock.

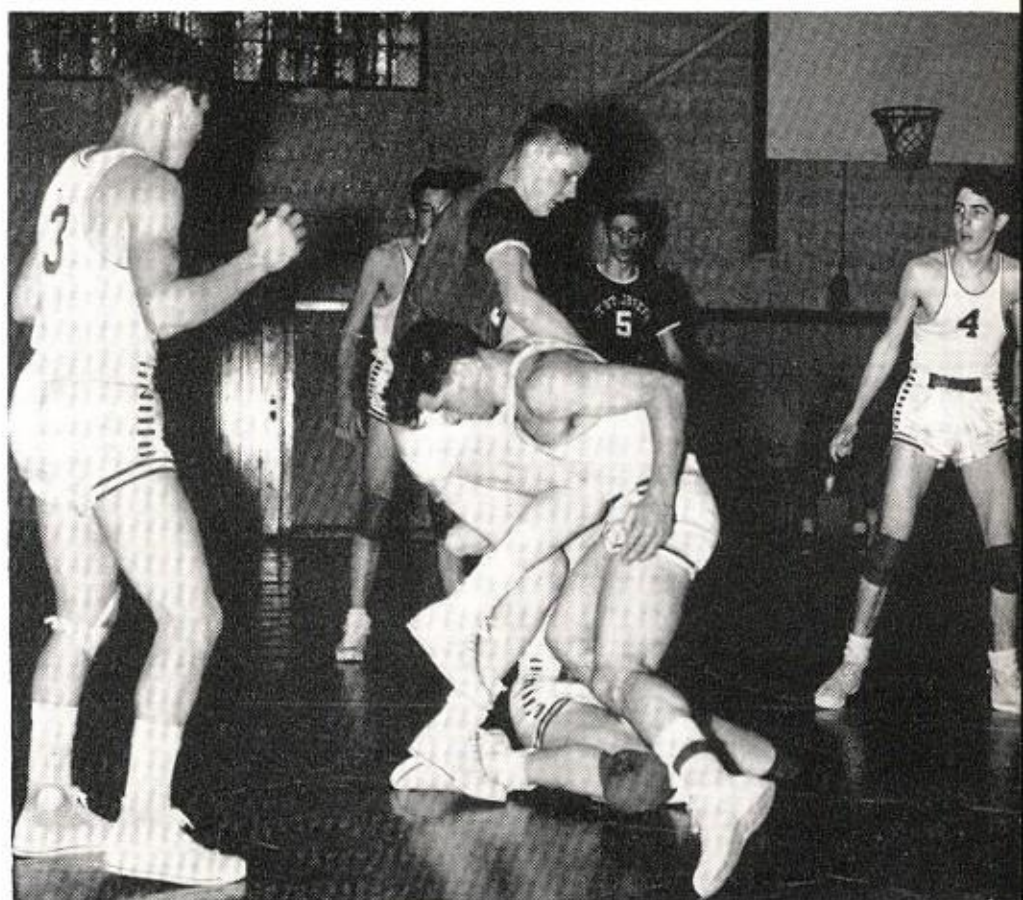

Faced with defending their title the Gaels opened league play with a win over Towson Catholic. Loyola and Friends then fell victim to the cagers as the tilt with Calvert Hall loomed. In the Baltimore U's old gym, Calvert Hall handed the Mount it's only league setback, 60-49.

St. Joe then began its streak of winning: 13 out of 14 games which led to the Private and M.S.A. titles.

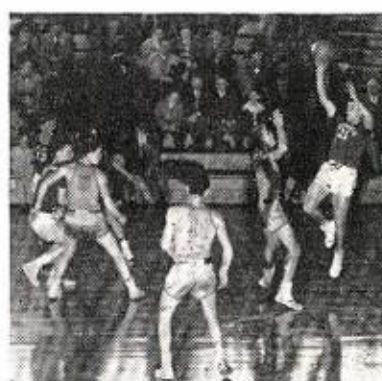

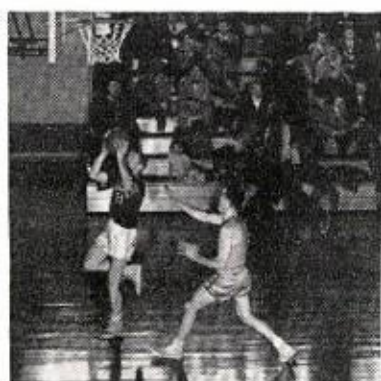

Towson Catholic, Friends and Loyola were then beaten for the second time by the Gaels in league competition. Next on the agenda was Calvert Hall which fell hard, 56-43 in a revengeful win for the Mount.

Gilman presented the obstacle to the Private title and the playoff finals, but the Roland Parkers were not enough to stop the oncoming M.S.A. champs.

In the best of three series, the Purple and Cream of Mt. St. Joe easily took two straight contests from a shorter and inexperienced public school titlist, Patterson Park, for their second consecutive crown.

"TAKEOUT TECHNIQUE"—Post-season football enthusiasm has its moment of glory in the basketball spotlight as Gene Nieberlein dares to attempt a break-through.

BLIND FLYING—Seems to best describe this Gael's return from the sideline.

TARGET RUN—In position on the basket, Tom Kohlhepp gets set to dunk it.

AIRBORNE—Frank Kozel fires from the outside as Loyola plays a tight circle.

INVITED to the Washington Catholic Invitational Tournament at College Park, the Purple and Cream cagers copped fifth place.

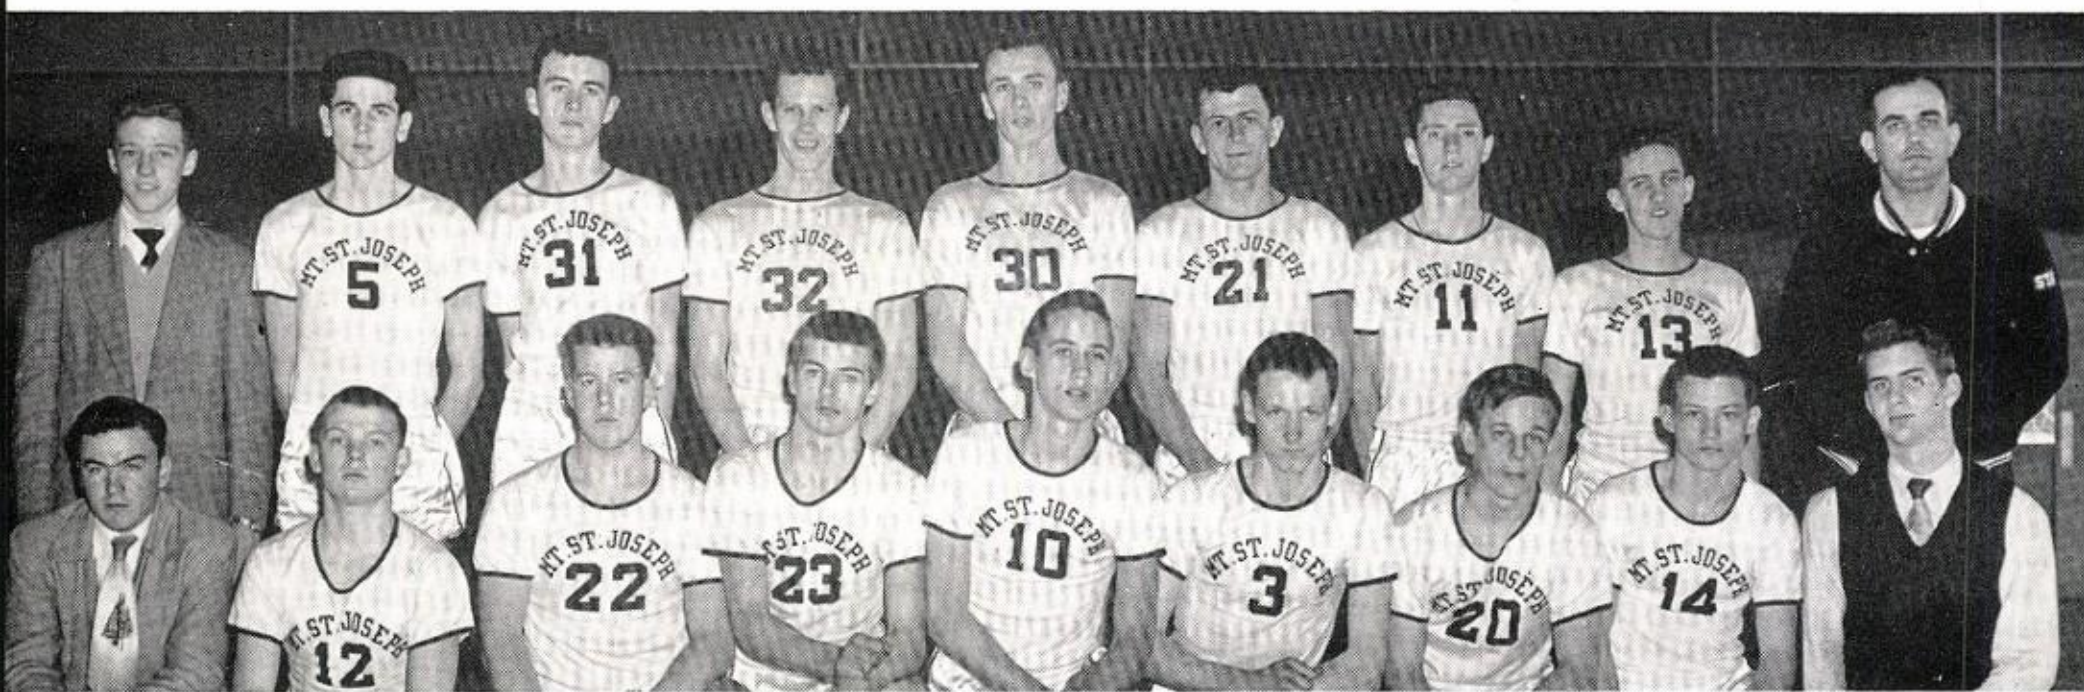

Named to the tournament all-star squad was Gene Nieberlein, who registered 47 points in the three games. Denny McGuire, lanky Gael pivotman, was placed on the tournament second team.

In their initial tournament encounter, the Gaels were eliminated from the title contention by a strong West Catholic team from Philadelphia: 79-60.

Gael scoring power was then displayed in the semi-final consolation game, as the Gaels used reserves throughout the contest and went on easily to defeat Scranton Prep. 71-48.

Benedictine of Richmond advanced to the consolation finals against the Mount and were easily beaten 70-39 by the smoothly functioning Gaels.

TENSE ACTION—Special trick lighting by the yearbook's photography staff catches a hectic moment of play under the boards in the Loyola fray.

FALL SILHOUETTES—Lifelike Paul Figinski and Bob Peterson trudging the hills in the Fall underlies the victory hopes of Spring.

TAPE BREAKERS

ALTHOUGH THEY were not champions, the Gael speedsters made a good showing in M.S.A. competition.

At College Park, the Purple cindermen took a third place, behind the efforts of Don Clarke, Paul Figinski, and Bob Peterson. The Mile Relay team of Buczkowski, Figinski, Gilmartin, and Clarke romped home ahead in record time.

Despite a defeat-ridden season among M.S.A. competitors, the Gaels placed their share of men in the finals at Homewood. Duke Bracken and Don Clarke were finalists in the century and 220 dashes respectively with Clarke in both. Bracken qualified in the broad jump. Figinski and Peterson carried Gael colors in the quarter, with Peterson and Gilmartin in the half. Cook and Demma were high jump and pole vault finalists. Seifert, Kelly and Sacker reached the finals.

The J. V. placed two winners in the finals held at Hopkins. Don Poole won the 880 and Charlie Currier ran away with the quarter. Bill Burke represented the Mount in the shot and came back with Al Miller in the discus. Mike Bourne, Joe Schmitt, and Roger Davis paced the J. V. with loyal determination.

IN ACTION

IN THE CLOUDS—Tony Demma anchors his pole in the pit and casually vaults into the clouds as he clears the heights.

DASHMAN—Bob Bracken heads down the straight-away in a practice warmup preparatory to taking part in the MSA championship meet.

ON THE LINE—Dave Gilmartin, Bob Peterson, Don Clarke, and Paul Figinski brush up on starting technique to give the Quill photographer a little help.

TENNIS—GOLF

LINKSMEN—Brother Leo Francis, Coach, poses with the quartet of Butch Smith, John Thomas, George Dilli, and Bob Lentz, who carry the Gael colors on the green.

IF DETERMINATION and will mean anything, St. Joe's golf team ended the season successfully. Bob Lentz, John Thomas, George Dilli and Butch Smith paced the squad this year. Lentz, No. 1 man, was the only one of the five to qualify for the M.S.A. but he was eliminated in the semi-finals.

AFTER A FIVE year absence tennis returned to the Mount athletic program under the direction of Andy McColgan and Brother Edgar. Victories were scored over Mervo, Patterson and Poly. Bill Wilson captured a majority of his singles matches, while Claude Bernier, John Carper and Bob Hudek progressed throughout the season. Jayveers Ed Kucharski, Kevin Parent and Richard Stoetzer showed promise.

B O W L I N G T E A M—James Strigle, Bob Miller, Ed Neal, Lou Winkelman, Wayne Morrison, Joe Ciurca, and Bill Block.

LED BY THE strikes of seniors Lou Winkelman, Wayne Morrison and Ed Neal, the Mount bowling team concluded their season with a fourth place finish in the standings. Supporting the headlighters were Bill Block, Al Miller, Jim Strigle and Joe Ciurca.

High game for the season was a 145 roll by Lou Winkelman in second round competition against Southern. In addition Lou's 369 set against the bulldogs was the high three game total for the Purple and Cream keglers. Ed Neal's 140 against Loyola and Wayne Morrison's 358 set against Patterson were Mount second highest for the campaign.

ALLEY-OOPS

GAEL KEGLER—Lou Winkelman throws an easy curve to eliminate an annoying 6-9 combination.

STRIKE!—Wayne Morrison lays one right between the 1-3 pins as the afternoon battle of duckpins reaches its climax.

FROM THE BLEACHERS

BEHIND THE STEADY pitching of southpaw Ron Babbkoff and the hitting of Jack Miller, who ended the season batting four hundred, the Mount binglers compiled an 8-2 record and placed second to Poly in the final league standings.

After taking the first two games of the season they encountered a powerful Poly team and dropped an 8-2 decision. Then, quickly recovering from this setback, they beat Loyola, Gilman and Calvert Hall in quick succession. But once again defeat struck, this time in the form of McDonogh who scored the decisive run on a dropped fly in the ninth inning. This loss eliminated the Mount from the M.S.A. race as Poly ended the season with only one loss. In the early games, Frank Novak and Don Deinlein paced the hitters, while Miller was a consistant sticker all year.

FAN SECTOR—Boys, Brothers, and Parents crowd the bleachers in sight of the new gymnasium to watch the Gaels—defending state champions—tangle with Poly.

MOMENT OF DECISION—Tom Wessel, gives the pitcher his concentrated attention in a determined attempt to start the game with a hit.

LIGHTER SIDE

FOR WEEKS HUSTLING SENIORS had been buying their tickets while Dance Committeemen industriously endeavored to solve numerous problems concerning decorations, favors, and the like. Seniors had been busy calling dates, arranging rides, getting measured for tuxedos, buying corsages, setting up parties in preparation for this, the greatest of school dances.

Those preparations were richly rewarded on Prom Night as the beautiful gowned dates and their formally attired escorts lent a touch of wonder to the mid-winter social in the sparkling ballroom of the Emerson Hotel.

SOCIALS

FOOTLOOSE AND FANCYFREE

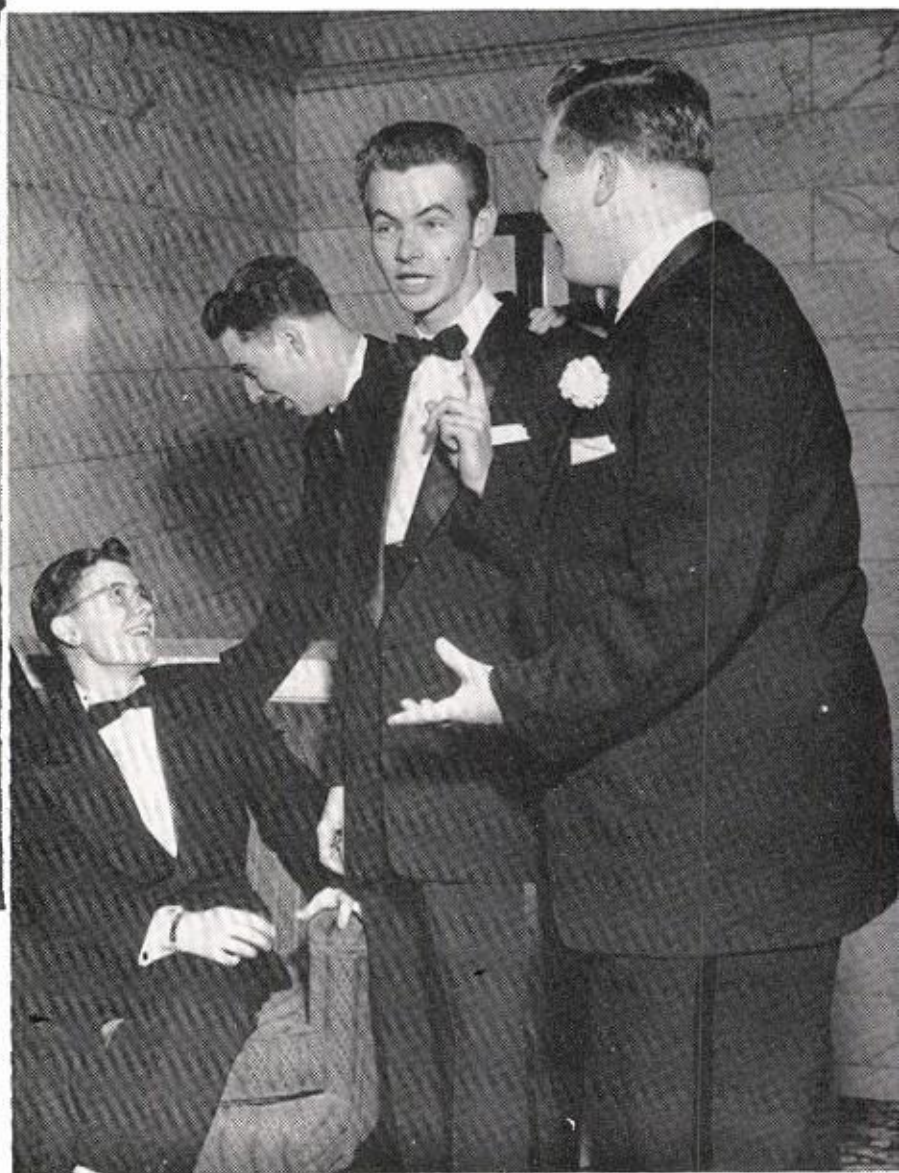

INTERMISSION—Senior Moderator Brother Marcellus utilizes the few quiet moments in a gala night to visit with Frank Wolski and his date as Brother Hilaire autographs Ed Brent's program.

WALTZ TIME—Carl Hamilton's orchestra weaves the magic of which dreams are made as eyes spark wonderful memories.

ALMA MATER—Promenade over, the attractive couples face the orchestra determined to render the Alma Mater in all its deserved glory.

STAG LINE—Joe Pasko tries to warn Chet Follin of the trying ways of women where a man is concerned.

At 11 o'clock, Carl Hamilton's Orchestra signaled the start of the Promenade and Favor Time as Prexy Joe Simmons and his smiling date entered the ballroom. With good-natured patience the promenade formed into four and eights for the traditional group photo and the presentation of the Bouquet of Roses from Joe Dorsey's attractive date to Joe Simmon's charming lady. This event marked a high point in every senior's social calendar.

PARENTAL PRIDE IS

SEASON'S HIGHLIGHT — A fitting tribute to the virile Catholicity of the families who honor the Mount is this Father-Son Communion Mass at the Cathedral where principles of faith are practiced in sincere devotion.

EXHIBITED

FATHERS' CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD—

These men are responsible for the tremendous interest created by the Fathers' Club.

EXECUTIVE GLAMOR—

Mothers' Club executive board members dominate this scene of political and local leaders at the Emerson Hotel on the night of the Senior Prom (seated) Mrs. Philibert, Mrs. Darby, Mrs. Nellies, Mrs. Dabrowski, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. McNerney, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Kleintank, Mrs. Arnold (standing, left to right) Bro. CAMERA TARGETS—John Kotchenreuther and Tom Wessel give Brother Aubin a chance to flash at the Junior Prom.

AMID A COLORFUL array of balloons and brightly colored paper decorations, 160 Junior Mountmen danced to the Music of the Debonaires at their Junior Prom, May 14th. The balmy breezes and cool air made the Maryland Yacht Club the ideal location for the Juniors big event. The decorations—by far the best in several years—were supplied by the Junior committeemen.

GLAMOR ROW—Smiles of Joe Simmons, Ed Roehre and Tom Kohlhepp indicate proper pride in their ladies.

The exotic fascination of the locale kept the fast stepping Juniors and their dates intrigued with the very clever "night life". When the twelve o'clock whistle blew, the fellows and gals reluctantly left, headed for restaurants, parties, and eventually peaceful rest.

THE MUSIC'S WILD—These animated personality gals are enjoying every phase of the lively "Hokey Poke" as their grinning escorts Ed Roehre and Charles Smith add a personal endorsement of their skill.

PROMENADERS—Joe Lorenz, Mike Gravatt, Charles Sikorsky, Al Hiller, Don Griffith and their smiling escorts enjoy the reward of being last in the promenade as the photographer proves that the last may also be first in the spotlight.

WHAT A NIGHT!!

SURPRISED—Tom Bell is pleasantly surprised to find himself and his attractive date in the spotlight.

SOCIALITES—The decks here at the Maryland Yacht Club are crowded with Junior Class crew members and their dates as ship roster is checked.

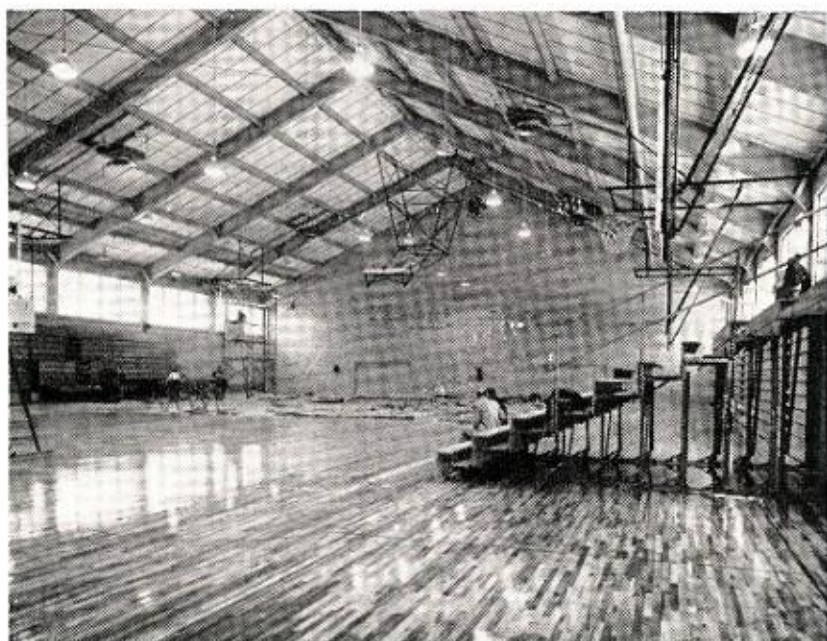

PRIME MOVERS—Brothers Colombiere and Bartholomew check Memorial plaque in gym lobby.

1954 MARKED THE END of a long quest which started in 1946. This was the year that Brother Bartholomew first began his campaign for a new gym in memory of the Mount Alumni who gave their lives in World War II. Although it was only a far away dream, Brother kept plugging. He organized fund raising campaigns and gained the backing of important persons. Slowly the money began to grow, but it was immediately after the war and materials were scarce.

In 1952 Archbishop Keough broke ground and construction began. Finally on January 22, 1954, the dream of eight years was realized. The new Mount Saint Joseph's Memorial Gymnasium was dedicated.

The new gym will offer a suitable home for the high caliber basketball and wrestling teams produced at the Mount.

As Mountmen, young and old, look at this imposing edifice, they can justly glow with pride; for, without their support, the gym would still be a pleasant dream.

A WORTHY MEMORIAL—This gym, made possible through the spirited and generous help of parents, friends and alumni, is a fitting tribute to the soldier dead of Mt. St. Joe.

in the seasonal sports. However they are urged to take an active part in the school activities. There are teams representing the residents in six-man football, basketball, and baseball. These teams compete with various parish teams as well as on an inter-scholastic basis. For those who are unable to play on inter-scholastic squads, there are intermural leagues.

Coupled with these excellent opportunities in regard to physical development, there are provisions to aid the residents in regard to their spiritual development. A chapel is adjacent to the sleeping quarters where Mass is celebrated each morning. Two priests are on hand every Saturday evening for Confessions. Thus the Mount resident is both spiritually and physically educated.

VOCALIZING—Kappa Chi's barber shop fans Bob Hudek, Bill Naughton, Walt Johnson and Mario Muyaie introduce their willing dates to a bit of smooth harmony.
